

QUEENSLAND WEIGHTLIFTING ASSOCIATION INC

Athletes Advisory Committee Terms of Reference

The purpose of the Athletes Advisory Committee (AAC) is to examine all matters of interest to QWA athlete members and to present suggestions or recommendations to the QWA Management Committee (MC) for its consideration.

Queensland Weightlifting Association's AAC is subject to the MC policies and decisions and has no authority to unilaterally alter, amend, or ignore these policies and decisions, or to directly instruct the QWA Operations Manager to take on any activities.

1. AAC AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

- a. To represent all QWA member athletes, protect their interests and uphold their rights and obligations.
- b. To promote open communication with, and solicit feedback from, QWA member athletes, giving them a voice within the decision-making process of the MC.
- c. Encourage current and former athletes with opportunities to contribute to the continuous development, evolution, and growth of weightlifting throughout Queensland.
- d. To raise awareness and educate QWA member athletes on topics of focused concern.

2. AAC RESPONSIBILITIES

- a. To prepare for the MC, a four-year AAC Operational Plan.
- b. To implement and evaluate parts of the current 2020-2024 MC endorsed Operational Plan that influences athlete development.
- c. To serve as a consultative committee and make recommendations to the MC as required.
- d. Represent QWA member athlete interests in relation to state events, athlete pathway development initiatives and high-performance programs.
- e. To seek issues or concerns from QWA member athletes and provide feedback and possible solutions to the MC.
- f. To encourage each QWA affiliated club to nominate one male and one female Athlete Advisory Representative (AAR) who can directly liaise with the AAC Chair.
- g. Establish an Annual QWA Athlete Awards Program that incorporates all gender and age-group categories.
- h. To create, promote and manage initiatives designed to enhance communication and the sharing of knowledge and experiences amongst QWA member athletes.
- i. To develop, collate, provide, and promote resources for QWA member athletes on important topics, such as, health and wellbeing, antidoping, integrity, ethics, rules, social media, marketing...
- j. To devise alternative competition formats that will enhance and generate excitement to the QWA Events Calendar.
- k. To debate the current status and future direction of weightlifting in Queensland, offering insight and feedback, thoughts, and ideas to further our sport to the MC for its consideration.

3. QWA CONSTITUTION

- a. The QWA's AAC is a "Sub-Committee" as defined in clause 17. (1) of the QWA Constitution.
- b. Under clause 9. (2) (a) (i) – (v) the QWA MC may terminate the membership of any person/s elected to the AAC.

4. AAC COMPOSITION

- a. The AAC will be comprised of eight (8) eligible persons.
- b. In the interest of gender equity there must be a minimum of four (4) females elected to the AAC.

- c. In the interest of gender equity there must be a minimum of four (4) males elected to the AAC.
- d. A minimum of two elected committee members but no more than three (3) elected committee members will represent age groups 18-23 years (U.23), 24-34 years (Senior) and 35+ years (Masters).
- e. The AAC will vote in a Chair and Deputy Chair at its first meeting following the respective election.

5. AAC MEMBER ELIGIBILITY

Persons may only be nominated for election, and sit on the AAC, if he or she meets the following criteria.

- a. Be at least 18 years of age.
- b. Be a registered QWA athlete member at the time of the election and for the term of the respective appointment.
- c. Not have been sanctioned for a doping offence in their sporting career.
- d. Be available to attend (either in person or by phone or other electronic means) a minimum of three meetings per year.

Any elected officer of the AAC who ceases to satisfy the above criteria at any time during his or her term will be asked to step down.

6. ELECTION TO AAC

- a. The election of persons to the AAC will take place biennially.
- b. Each QWA affiliated Club will be invited to submit the names of four (4) females and four (4) males at a designated time.
- c. Elections will be conducted as simple, "first past the post" elections, with the principle being that the highest ranked candidates are elected.
- d. The four (4) females scoring the highest number of points that determine overall rankings will be declared elected to the AAC.
- e. The four (4) males scoring the highest number of points that determine overall rankings will be declared elected to the AAC.
- f. The AAC, at its first meeting following the respective election, will appoint a Chair and Deputy Chair.
- g. The ACC Chair will be the ACC's QWA Management Committee voting representative. In the absence of the AAC Chair the Deputy Chair will have the same privileges.

7. AAC TERMS AND VACANCIES

- a. The term of appointment for AAC Officers will commence on the day of the respective QWA AGM.
- b. There will be a staggered rotation of appointments. Two Officers, one male and one female must stand down at the 2025 election, however, they can be re-elected. Two other officers, one male and one female, must stand down in 2027, however they can be re-elected. In 2029, the remaining two male and two female officers must stand down in 2029, however they can be re-elected.
- c. Each term of appointment lasts two-years. AAC officers can serve a maximum of three terms of appointment a period of six (6) years.

8. AAC QWA MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE REPRESENTATION

- a. The AAC is represented on the QWA Management Committee by one (1) member, the AAC Chair, appointed by the AAC at its inaugural meeting after the respective election.

9. AAC REVIEW

- a. Any amendments to these Terms of Reference must be ratified by the QWA Management Committee.

AAC Officer Election Process

1. The election, re-election and succession planning process for AAC Officers is to be undertaken in a considered way that satisfies the QWA's governance obligations.
2. Voting will take place biennially (2023-2025-2027-2029) via email.
3. An Expression of Interest Form will be circulated to all QWA athlete members 56 days prior to the respective QWA AGM and must be returned to the QWA via email to gwa@gwa.org no later than 28 Days prior to the respective AGM.
4. Each QWA affiliated Club will be furnished with details of each AAC Candidate no later than 14 days prior to the respective QWA AGM in the year of the AAC election.
5. Each QWA affiliated Club is entitled to rank four female candidates and four male candidates against the AAC Officer Position Statement. Using the AAC Candidate Voting Forms, the QWA affiliated Club representative must rank both male and female candidates 1, 2, 3 or 4. A Candidate ranked 1 will score 6 points, a candidate ranked 2 will score 4 points and a candidate ranked 3 will score 2 points and a candidate ranked 4 will score 1 point.
6. The Completed AAC Candidate Voting Forms, clearly depicting both the male and female rankings and point scores, must be returned to the QWA via email to gwa@gwa.org no later than 7 days prior to the QWA AGM in the respective election year (2023-2025-2027-2029). Each club will be sent confirmation upon receipt of the correctly completed AAC Candidate Voting Form.
7. The information contained within each correctly submitted AAC Voting Form will be transferred to the AAC Candidate Tally Sheet that will be used to calculate the overall ranking points.
8. The four (4) Candidates earning the highest number of ranking points within the stated age categories will be declared elected to the QWA's AAC.
9. The four (4) female Candidates earning the highest number of ranking points within the stated age categories will be declared elected to the QWA's AAC.
10. In the event of equal scores, additional points will be allocated equated to the number of clubs who nominated the candidate (nominations from 5 clubs =5 points, 4 nominations =4 pts etc.), and if still equal additional points will be given for the level of ranking (a nominee who earns four 1st rankings will get more points than a nominee who earns three 1st rankings).
11. The newly elected AAC will begin its operational term on the day of the respective QWA AGM.
12. The AAC, at its first meeting post respective biennial elections, must appoint a Chair and Deputy Chair. The Chair will become the voting member on the QWA Management Committee. The Deputy Chair will substitute the Chair during any instance when the Chair is absent and will have the same privileges.

Attachment 1 – AAC CANDIDATE CLUB VOTING FORM EXAMPLE

Club Name: Burleigh Barbell Club
FEMALE CANDIDATE	RANK	SCORE	MALE CANDIDATE	RANK	Score
Amie			Aaron	1	5
Brenda			Blake
Carol	1	5	Calum
Deb			David
Erika			Eric
Fran			Fred
Georgia	3	1	Greg
Harriet	2	3	Harry
Izzy			Ian
Jemma			Josh	2	3
Keeley			Kev

Michelle			Marty	3	1
Authorised Club Representative Name: Authorised Witness Name: Submission Date:    /    / 2023

Attachment 2 – AAC FEMALE CANDIDATE TALLY SHEET EXAMPLE

FEMALE CANDIDATE	Bribie WLC	Bounce WLC	Burleigh BC	Cougars WLC	Dungeon WLC.....	TOTAL SCORE	FINAL RANK
Amie						0
Brenda	5	3	1	3
Carol					5	5
Deb			3		3	6	2 nd =
Erika	3	1	5	5		14	1st
Fran
Georgia
Harriet				1	1	2
Izzy
Jemma	1	5				6	2 nd =
Keeley
Michelle

Note: A separate Male Candidate Tally Sheet will also be used.

Policy Owner	QWA
Issue Date	28/3/2023
Review Date	1/1/2025
Review Completed by
Status	New
Policy Approver	QWA Committee
Version	1.0
Email	qwa@qwa.org